Stage Management Recruitment Jan23

KIT Theatre makes playful, immersive theatre for, by and with young people which improves their relationship to learning and develops their empathy, resilience and critical thinking. At the heart of our practice are Adventures in Learning (AiL), interactive stories which erupt unexpectedly in schools and cultural spaces and combine immersive theatre and game mechanics to make an impact.

We are looking for Stage Managers, in particular those with facilitation skills, who can support the rehearsal and delivery of our Adventures in Learning across London, Essex and the rest of England.

KIT's Adventures in Learning

- 1-day Inspiration Days. These are short-form Adventures in Learning, with a whole narrative arc delivered across a single day.
- Multi Episode 'long form' adventures. Lasting several weeks, these are teacher-led adventures where characters make contact with pupils through emails and videos, before the adventure culminates in a live theatrical finale with actors arriving in school.
- Creative Development Adventures in Learning. The missions at the heart of these adventures require pupils to write their own stories or create their own theatre, working with KIT storysmiths and directors to develop their own creative work.
- Takeovers: An adventure takes over an entire school for one week, with normal lessons suspended and every year group given specific missions within a single overarching storyline.

Stage Manager key responsibilities

- Managing schedules on the day and being responsive to changing school/venue needs
- Liaising with teachers and school staff
- Providing support for freelance performer team
- Liaising with KIT HQ Staff
- Operating a Qlab file and setting up some props
- Collecting props from KIT stores, driving them to the school and returning them to KIT store at the end of the project (driver needed)
